

Launching Ohyada Distribution Center

Kakuyasu Co., Ltd. (headquartered in Kita-ku, Tokyo; Junichi Sato, Representative Director and President; hereinafter the "Company"), which primarily sells and delivers liquor in the Tokyo metropolitan area, announced that it established Ohyada Center, a new distribution center for business, in Adachi-ku, Tokyo and started the operation on November 1, 2023.

As demand for liquor from restaurants rises in the post-COVID-19 era, the Company will open its ninth route delivery center for restaurants in the Tokyo metropolitan area.

When the new center starts to operate, the occupancy rate at existing distribution centers will improve, which will result in expanded workspaces and improved loading and unloading conditions. The Company aims to optimize its operations to provide better service to customers and achieve sustainable distribution. The Company is considering expanding its business into new areas in Chiba and Saitama prefectures.
