Expressing Support for TCFD

Kakuyasu Group (headquartered in Kita-ku, Tokyo; Yoshiyuki Maegaichi, Representative Director and President) expressed its support for the recommendations of “the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (hereinafter: TCFD)” on June 26, 2023.

The Company recognizes that sustainability issues are vital management challenges that must be addressed if the Company is to achieve sustainable growth, especially in a rapidly changing social environment. The environment is one of the Company’s material sustainability issues, and it prioritizes addressing climate change above all else.

The Company has decided to analyze and assess business risks and opportunities stemming from climate change consistently in accordance with the TCFD recommendations and disclose information more actively.

The Company is committed to improving its disclosure practices based on the TCFD recommendations and to strengthen measures to address climate change. The entire Group will strategically promote sustainability initiatives to help create a sustainable society and enhance its corporate value in a sustainable manner.

- ※ Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD):
TCFD was established by the Financial Stability Board (FSB) to promote corporate actions to mitigate climate change and disclosure of climate-related financial risks.
